1. Heard both sides. Rule. By consent, rule made returnable forthwith.

2. This is an application which is filed by the applicant husband, his mother and father who are shown as the accused by the police in C.R.No.91/2005 registered with the Versova police station on a complaint made by respondent no.2. The application was filed for quashing of the FIR on the footing that the parties have settled their dispute and marriage has been dissolved by mutual consent. By my earlier order dated 6.3.2006, I called upon the wife to file an affidavit. The affidavit is filed. She states in the affidavit that with the intervention of elders Talaknama deed has been entered and both the families amicably settled the matter and she intent to remarry with some other person and unable to pursue the matter by attending the Court and states that the FIR no.91/2005 may be quashed. Taking an overall view of the matter as also taking into consideration the fact that the disputes between the parties are settled, in my view, no purpose would be served by continuing the investigation. APP states that he submit to the orders of the Court. In the circumstances, rule made absolute in terms of prayer clause-(a).
